CHICAGO AREA ACTIVITIES

Chicago and the surrounding areas have a wide variety of entertainment options. If you are planning to extend your trip to include some sightseeing, you may find the following sites of interest.

Chicago's many fine cultural institutions are fascinating places to learn and explore – and three of them are conveniently located on the beautiful Museum Campus just south of Grant Park. Here, on the city's lakefront and just steps apart, you can see the world's largest and most complete T. Rex at The Field Museum, the space and sky theaters at Adler Planetarium, and, at Shedd Aquarium, the spectacular Oceanarium which recently completed a major renovation.

Discover a state-of-the-art collection of architecture, landscape design and art that provide the backdrop for hundreds of free cultural programs including concerts, exhibitions, tours, and family activities. In Millennium Park, you'll find a new kind of town square – a lively, spectacular gathering spot located in the heart of the city and a destination for Chicagoans and visitors alike.

In the block south of Millennium Park, The Art Institute of Chicago encompasses more than 5,000 years of human expression from cultures around the world as well as the largest collection of impressionist paintings outside of Paris. Founded in 1879, the Art Institute opened its newest addition – the 24,000-square-meter Modern Wing housing renowned Modern and Contemporary masterpieces – in May 2009.

The 360 Chicago Observation Deck is a landmark building known for its pyramid shape and crossed outer beams. From the 94th floor John Hancock Observatory and the open-air Skywalk, you'll enjoy sensational views of the city, lake, and, on clear days, the surrounding states of Indiana, Michigan, and Wisconsin. The multimedia Sky Tour comes in adults' and kids' versions.

The Museum of Science and Industry – the largest science museum in the Western Hemisphere, spanning nearly 14 acres – offers over 800 captivating interactive exhibits including the U-505 submarine, a working coal mine, a Boeing 727 airplane, and much, much more.

No trip to Chicago would be complete without taking in a show in the legendary Loop District. Catch a production straight from Broadway at the CIBC Theatre and Auditorium Theatres. Another treasure in the Loop theater district is the Goodman Theatre. The Goodman – whose productions, artists, and programs earned a Special Tony Award for Outstanding Regional Theatre – consistently produces unsurpassed classic and contemporary works. The legendary Chicago Theatre, whose famous C-H-I-C-A-G-O marquee lights up State Street, plays host to concerts, comedians, special events, and theatrical productions.

Navy Pier is the place where all of Chicagoland and tourists from around the world have come together since 1995 to enjoy the beauty and the thrills of a day on Lake Michigan. From rides to restaurants, exhibitions to entertainment, shopping to dining cruises and tour boats, Navy Pier has it all – in a location unlike any other! Take a ride on the 15-story tall Ferris wheel, catch a movie at the IMAX® Theatre, or just kick back and enjoy the incredible feats of talented Chinese acrobats in Cirque Shanghai.
